

GENETIC RESEARCH AND ISSUES OF OWNERSHIP AND CONTROL
GENETIC RESEARCH, INDIGENOUS PEOPLES AND THE DEVELOPING WORLD
BIOBANKING, POPULATIONAL GENETIC RESEARCH AND INFORMED CONSENT

Stock, PhD., is a U.S. biophysicist whose book, Redesigning Our Inevitable Genetic Future, won the Kistler Award for Best Book of 2002.

Margaret Atwood is Canada's most famous living writer. Drawing on her 2003 best-seller Oryx and Crake for inspiration, she asks where genetic research could take us if we leave our compassion and ethics behind.

Saturday, November 17, 2007

CALL FOR PAPERS

Liberties Research Centre in conjunction with the University of Calgary's Department of Law is hosting a conference to address topical legal and ethical issues in medical genetics. This conference is of particular interest to faculty and graduate students in the following disciplines: